

1 • The ridge and the road

Main battle • 8 rounds • 6 orders per side

Approximate 11:30 opening, 18 June 1815. Selectively compressed command groups, not surveyed battalion positions. F = French; A + P = coalition. Set all stress to0; clear activations. French starts odd rounds, coalition even. L=line, C=column, Sq=square; N/E/S/W=facing.

Opening positions (combat units). Blue French; red coalition. P1 + BP: round4 to J6. P2: round5 to J3. Use the table for formation/facing. NF/WA commander markers sit beside their cells.

RESERVES: P1 enters J6 at start of round4 with Blücher (BP); P2 enters J3 at start of round5. Infantry column W, stress0; free entry, may activate this round. Initially all three are on the labelled apron. Occupied entry cell: defer to the next round; check P1 first. No mid-round entry or game extension. F5 is already on field and may act immediately.

END ROUND8: count French combat units on B4, E3, E2, H6. 3–4 = French win; 0–1 = coalition win; 2 = draw. Empty cells do not count. Immediate elimination applies: no combat units on field AND no pending arrivals means defeat.

RESET/DISPLAY: restore this table, stress0, and P1/P2/BP to their labelled apron positions. All 59 miniature pieces belong to this display, including off-field reserves.

2 • Westward diversion

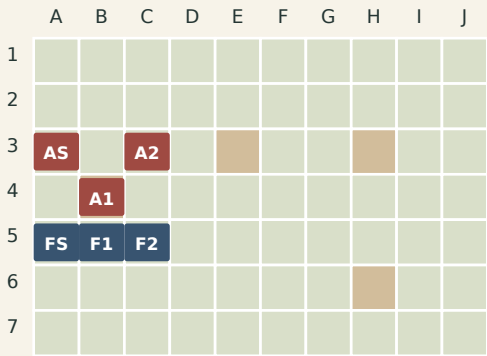

Counterfactual allocation / orders • 4 rounds • 3 orders per side

No arrivals. Unlisted pieces stay on apron and cannot enter or prevent elimination. All listed units start stress0 and unactivated. French starts odd rounds; coalition even. Commanders sharing a cell sit beside it. L=line, C=column, Sq=square; N/E/S/W=facing.

ID	Group	Cell	Shape / face
F1	Reille command group	B5	C N
F2	d'Erlon left group	C5	C N
FS	French voltigeurs	A5	N
A1	British Guards at Hougomont	B4	Sq S
A2	King's German Legion light infantry	C3	L S
AS	Allied rifle screen	A3	S
NF	Napoleon	C5	commander
WA	Wellington	C3	commander

At end of round4 French wins if a French combat unit occupies B4. Otherwise coalition wins. Immediate elimination applies normally.

Concentrate orders to erode Hougomont, or tempt defenders into the open. Square resists flanks but fires weakly.

RESET: restore this table and clear all counters; round1. This is an original counterfactual game, not a guaranteed historical alternative. Use main sheet1 to restore the opening display.

3 • A breach at the farm

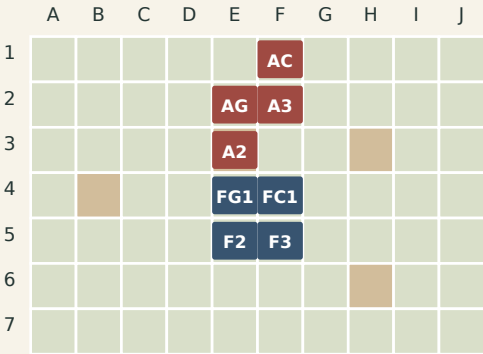

Counterfactual allocation / orders • 5 rounds • 4 orders per side

No arrivals. Unlisted pieces stay on apron and cannot enter or prevent elimination. All listed units start stress0 and unactivated. French starts odd rounds; coalition even. Commanders sharing a cell sit beside it. L=line, C=column, Sq=square; N/E/S/W=facing.

ID	Group	Cell	Shape / face
F2	d'Erlon left group	E5	C N
F3	d'Erlon right group	F5	L N
FC1	French heavy cavalry west	F4	N
FG1	French west battery	E4	N
A2	King's German Legion light infantry	E3	C S
A3	British ridge infantry	F2	L S
AC	Anglo-Allied heavy cavalry	F1	S
AG	Allied ridge battery	E2	S
NF	Napoleon	F5	commander
WA	Wellington	F2	commander

At end of round5 count French combat units on E3 and E2: both = French win; neither = coalition win; one = draw. Immediate elimination applies normally.

The gun starts ahead of the column. Fire, then clear the approach. Cavalry cannot enter E3; support costs an extra order and activates its contributor.

RESET: restore this table and clear all counters; round1. This is an original counterfactual game, not a guaranteed historical alternative. Use main sheet1 to restore the opening display.

4 • The eastern commitment

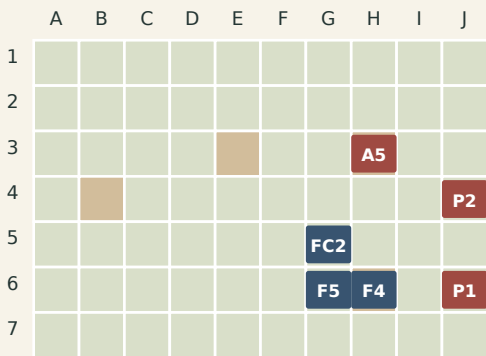

Counterfactual allocation / orders • 5 rounds • 4 orders per side

No arrivals. Unlisted pieces stay on apron and cannot enter or prevent elimination. All listed units start stress0 and unactivated. French starts odd rounds; coalition even. Commanders sharing a cell sit beside it. L=line, C=column, Sq=square; N/E/S/W=facing.

ID	Group	Cell	Shape / face
F4	Lobau reserve group	H6	C E
F5	Imperial Guard reserve	G6	C E
FC2	French heavy cavalry east	G5	E
P1	Bülow advance group	J6	C W
P2	Zieten support group	J4	C W
A5	Nassau eastern outposts	H3	C S
NF	Napoleon	G6	commander
BP	Blücher	J6	commander
WA	Wellington	H3	commander

At end of round5 coalition wins if a coalition combat unit occupies H6 AND at least one of P1/P2 survives on field. If no coalition combat unit occupies H6, French wins. Otherwise draw. Immediate elimination applies normally.

Commit the Guard against eastern pressure or use cavalry in open ground. H6 admits column infantry/skirmishers only. This setup combines forces from different moments deliberately.

RESET: restore this table and clear all counters; round1. This is an original counterfactual game, not a guaranteed historical alternative. Use main sheet1 to restore the opening display.
